Collegiate Scholarship Application

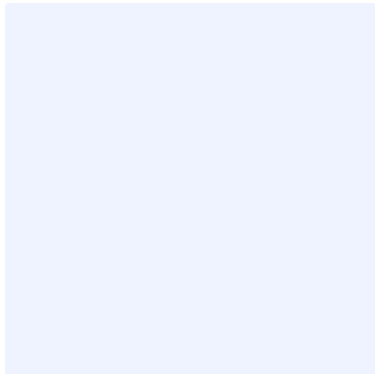

Congratulations! You have been granted an audience before Pope Francis. The Holy Father would like to hear your thoughts on topics that are very important to his ministry. Pope Francis said "Let us ask for the grace of never closing the doors of reconciliation and pardon, but rather of knowing how to go beyond evil and differences, opening every possible pathway of hope." Write an essay (not to exceed 2500 characters) on how this is an important message for our country and what you can do about growing divisions and conflict in our country.

What do you see as the biggest obstacle to maintain your Catholic faith during your time at College? (Not to exceed 1500 characters)
